

Colony 21 / July 21–24 / Schedule

MISSOULA COLONY

MONTANA REPERTORY THEATRE

COLONY 21 will feature staged readings of five new plays by our guest artists. There will also be a public forum examining the needs of a new generation of playwrights, as well as a keynote address from visiting writer Samuel D. Hunter, recipient of a 2014 MacArthur “Genius Grant” Fellowship.

PUBLIC EVENTS

THURSDAY / July 21 / MASQUER THEATRE
TICKETS: $10

7:00 PM / KEYNOTE ADDRESS / Samuel D. Hunter
8:00 PM / The Harvest by Samuel D. Hunter

FRIDAY / July 22 / MASQUER THEATRE
TICKETS: $10

6:30 PM / PUBLIC FORUM
Examining the relationship of the Colony and the Missoula writing community
8:00 PM / Everything is Wonderful by Chelsea Marcantel

SATURDAY / July 23 / MASQUER THEATRE

8:00 PM / Dark Matter by Heather Benton and Molly Rice
TICKETS: $10

SUNDAY / July 24 / MASQUER THEATRE

12:00 PM / Brontë to the Future! by Laramie Dean
TICKETS: $10
3:00 PM / The Sun as My Witness by Kevin Kicking Woman
TICKETS: $10

Save 20% with an all-access button: $40 for all five staged readings, the keynote address, and public forum.

Staged readings: Actors from Missoula, New York, and Los Angeles will help bring these new works to life, and visiting directors will oversee the readings.

LEARN MORE ONLINE AT: montanarep.org

SALINA CHATLAIN / PRODUCER
(406) 243-6809 / salina.chatlain@umontana.edu